The Lluc monastery

Lluc has been a place of pilgrimage since the 13th century, when a Moorish shepherd found a wooden figure of the Virgin Mary in a rock cave and brought it to Klosetert. Today, Lluc is the most important pilgrimage destination in Mallorca and also houses one of the world's oldest male and female choirs, the Els Blauets choir. You can also experience 3 bronze figures created by Gaudi, the beautiful botanical garden and a small museum with treasures from the island. Or just enjoy the tranquility as the sun sets over the mountains

Day 4 - Hike back from Lluc to Finca la Vall

Breakfast at the Lluc monastery. We experience the calm in the morning in the mountains before we start the hike back to the finca by the "pilgrim's path". About 16 km. Lunch in the mountains along the way

Relaxation by the pool

Farewell dinner at Finca la Vall
